APPENDIX J:

3 = No pain (0), 3 = Extreme pain (100)

With knee replacement |

Current Pain/Function

With usual care | Explore

(20) = Poor function, 🖍 (80) = Excellent function

SAVE Results Download PDF

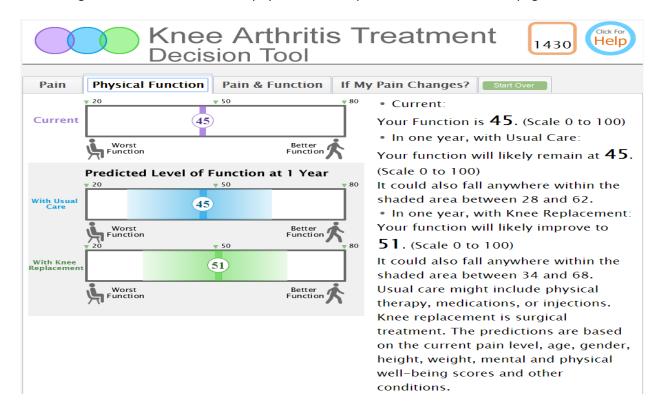

Figure 1. Early version of the physical function predicted outcome results page Click Fo Knee Osteoarthritis Help 8502 Clinical Decision Support About Your Patient Summary Physical Function Pain/Function Adjust About Me Age: Current 41 Height Weight: 63 Yrs 5' 2" 191 lbs Better Function Knee Pain and Function ith Usual With Knee Predicted Level of Function at 1 Year Pain 70 43 17 42 With Usual Function 41 42 47

Better Function

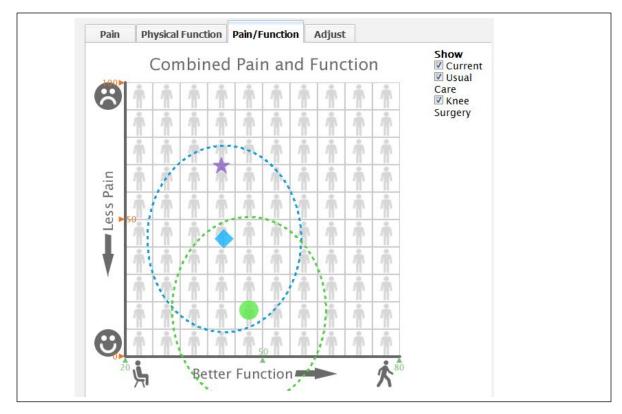

Better Function

Figure 2. Final version of the physical function predicted outcome results page

With Knee

Pain & Function If My Pain Changes? Physical Function Pain Show Compare Show Knee Combined Pain & Function Usual Care Options Replacement Current: With Knee Replacement Your Pain is 60. (Scale 0 to 100) Your Function is 30. (Scale 0 to 100) • In one year, with Usual Care: Usual Care Your pain will most likely improve to 39. (Scale 0 to 50 It could also fall anywhere within the shaded area t Current between 6 and 72. Your function will likely improve to ${f 36}$. (Scale 0 to 1 It could also fall anywhere within the shaded area between 19 and 53. . In one year, with Knee Replacement: Most Your pain will most likely improve to 16. (Scale 0 to 100 100) 50 Worst Better It could also fall anywhere within the shaded area Function 1 Function between 0 and 49. Usual care might include physical therapy, medications, or injections. Your function will likely improve to 40. (Scale 0 to 1 Knee replacement is surgical treatment. The predictions are based on It could also fall anywhere within the shaded area the current pain level, age, gender, height, weight, mental and physical between 23 and 57. well-being scores and other conditions.

Figure 4. Final combined pain and function predicted outcome results page